

Expert Talk on "Weaponization of International Investment Law in Times of Renewed Geopolitical Struggle"

Prof (Dr.) Steffen Hindelang
Uppsala University, Sweden

About the speaker

Steffen Hindelang is Professor of International Investment and Trade Law at Uppsala University in Sweden. He is also the Executive Director of the CELIS Institute, an independent, non-profit, non-partisan research enterprise dedicated to promoting better regulation of foreign investment in the context of security, public order and competitiveness. Steffen has advised the EU, European governments as well as companies on investment review regimes, international investment disputes, and international organisations on the reform of the current international investment law regime. He has been repeatedly invited by the European Parliament's INTA Committee to prepare studies on the development of the EU's Common Commercial Policy. He frequently acts as an expert advisor before international tribunals and national courts and has served as an ICSID arbitrator.

Centre for Trade and Investment Law is organizing an Expert Talk on Weaponization of International Investment Law in Times of Renewed Geopolitical Struggle. The Expert Talk is scheduled to be held at 12:30 PM on 27 August, 2024, 8th Floor, NAFED House, New Delhi.

About the Session

International investments are being recalibrated, hastened by a precarious geopolitical situation, and changing economic priorities of key global players. In the midst of the current turbulent state there has been a paradigm shift in International Investment Law. This is leading to new laws which are more complex, heterogeneous, or ambiguous in nature. In this session Prof (Dr.) Steffen Hindelang will discuss this changing nature of International Investment Law.
