

Centre for Trade and Investment Law
&
South Asia International Economic Law Network
Cordially invite you to the Discussion

on “Recent Developments in International Trade”

Distinguished Speaker

Mr. Gary N. Horlick

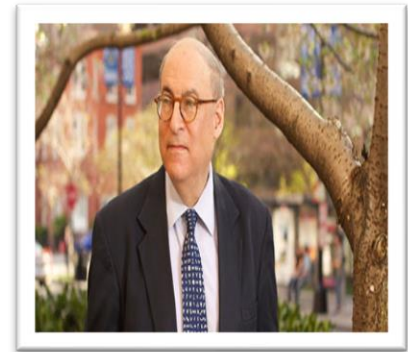

(Partner and International Trade Lawyer, Law Offices of Gary N. Horlick | Adjunct Professor of Law, Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, D.C.)

About the Topic:

The discussion shall address some of the recent developments in the sphere of international trade such as the renegotiation of NAFTA 2.0, the making of United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (“USMCA”) and the future of mega regional trade agreements.

About the Speaker:

Gary Horlick is one of the leading International Trade Law practitioners in the world based in Washington, D.C. He is a former international trade counsel with U.S. Senate Finance Committee and has also served as the head of Import Administration. During his period he was responsible for all U.S. anti-dumping and countervailing duty cases, Foreign Trade Zones, Special Import Progress and negotiation of U.S.- E.U. steel agreement. He has litigated cases in U.S. courts, WTO Tribunals, NAFTA Tribunals, and anti-dumping/countervailing duty cases in more than 20 countries. Also, he has served as chairman of WTO and Mercosur panels.

He has written numerous articles and delivered speeches on international trade and investment. He has served as first Chairman of the WTO Permanent Group of Experts on Subsidies; Chairman of the International Section of the DC Bar; Vice Chairman of the Trade Committee of the International Bar Association; and is a member of the Council of Foreign Relations. Horlick teaches international trade law at Yale, Georgetown, Columbia, Berne and Barcelona universities. He is an alumnus of Dartmouth College and Cambridge University. He received his J.D. from Yale Law School.

Tuesday, 20 November 2018 | 11:00 am – 1:00 pm
Venue: 8th Floor, CRIT Conference Hall, NAFED House, Ashram Chowk, New Delhi - 110014